

Garden House

The garden house was donated to the museum by former Senator Mike Rose and his wife Vivian. The octagon shaped building was on the property of the house where Saul Alexander lived. It is believed to have been a gathering place for Saul and his buddies to play cards.