

The Battle of Summerville

In March 1865, six Federal deserters, armed and mounted, entered Summerville. Their intention was to steal and destroy. They were met by an equal number of citizens with shotguns at the steps of old Town Hall. The "battle" was brief and the townspeople fired first. The "marauders" who remained in their saddles, were driven off. Two were killed.